Green Bean Chopped Liver

¾ lb. green beans (half of what came in your share today)    2 hard boiled eggs    2 medium onions

2 TBS. olive oil    ¼ cup walnuts OR 1 cup cooked lentils    salt and freshly ground black pepper

Saute onions in oil until brown. Steam and then drain green beans very well, pressing out as much water as possible. Put all ingredients into food processor; process until smooth. If too watery, add whole wheat matzo or crackers, a bit at a time, to absorb the extra liquid. Season to taste. Additional hard boiled egg whites can be used for one or both of the yolks. Vegan version: replace eggs with chopped fresh mushrooms.
